

Liminalale Rom - En arkitektonisk undersøkelse av Østmarkhuset

This section features a large white, abstract sculpture at the top left. Below it are several smaller photographs showing different views of the building's exterior and its integration with the surrounding landscape. At the bottom of this section is a large, detailed architectural site plan showing the building's footprint and its relationship to the terrain and other structures.

This section is a vertical column of architectural drawings and interior photographs. It includes several sections and elevations showing the building's form and its relationship to the landscape. Interspersed with these drawings are photographs of interior spaces, showing people moving through the building and interacting with the environment.

This section is a collage of architectural drawings and interior photographs. It includes several sections and elevations showing the building's form and its relationship to the landscape. Interspersed with these drawings are photographs of interior spaces, showing people moving through the building and interacting with the environment.

This horizontal strip at the bottom of the page contains various diagrams, text blocks, and small photographs. It includes a series of circular diagrams on the left, a central text block with a small map, and several smaller photographs and diagrams on the right.