

10. Appendix H: Student Work (Original, written in English by the students)

Read for 10 minutes every day. On Friday, choose one or both of these questions about the graphic novel you have chosen. Write your answers in a document and hand in on Google Classroom. 0.5-1 page.

| Week 46: | How do you experience this book so far? Is it exciting? Funny? Scary? Weird? Thought-provoking? | Which characters do you especially like or dislike? What are their primary characteristics? |
|-----------------|---|--|
| George | I think this book is very weird so far. The book is very difficult to understand. I can't find the context. | |
| Frank | The book I am reading is kind of exciting and weird. I like the main character in the book, his name is Dodzi. I have only made it to page 25, but so far the book has been exciting. I think the book is going to get better the more I read in it. | The character I like the most from the book I'm reading is a boy called Dodzi. Dodzi is the main character in book. There are more characters in the book, but I just don't like them as much as I like Dodzi. |
| Aman | I would likely meet "L". I don't know what I would ask but he seems really smart I kind of like the way he thinks. for example, when he sent a person to act as he is "L" and made Light thinks that he is "L". Light acted dumb at that moment and killed the person and that made "L" understand that he is watching him right at the moment. | |

| Week 47: | Who in the book would you like to meet? What would you ask or say? | If you were a character in this story, what would your role be? |
|-----------------|--|--|
| Timothy | I like the movie Hey Kiddo it's about a boy who lives to his grandparents and their parents are alive, but he finds out about them in the movie. | |

| | | |
|---------------|--|--|
| | He is a boy who is going to learn how to drive a car that he isn't going to use because of that his grandparents is taking care of him and not his parents I would not want to meet anyone in the book There is not so much sound Robertles in the book but there is a lot of talking Robertoles. the kid have been wanting to live whid his mom but now that he found out that the mom is a drug adickt he dosnt, he wants to live whid his grandparents more now but hes going to try and find his dad. i dont know what he dos to find he dad but hes going to find him the title of the book spoils that. | |
| George | I would like to meet greg. I would asked him about he love Layla Morgan. If i was a character in this story my role would have been greg. | |
| Robert | I would like to meet Nathan because he is cool, smart, funny, intelligent and he is one of the chosen one he is also hindering that a war is starting the nature against the humanity. I would like to read V.2 of the book because I really got interested in the book. | |
| Frank | The pearson I would like to meet from the book is Dodzi. He seems like an adventures boy. If I could ask him anything I would ask him where his parents are, Because in the book he is in a boarding school. | If I was a character in the book, my role would probably be a kid who lost there parents like everyone else in the book. |

|-----------------|--|---|
| Week 49: | What do artistic or visual details tell you about the characters or setting? | Are speech balloons, lettering, or sound effects used in a creative way? How does this impact the story? |
| George | The artistic or pictorial details in the cartoon tell me that the main character is visually impaired women. I think the | |

| | speech bubbles letters and sound effects are used in a creative way. This affects the action so that it is easier to understand what is happening or going on in the cartoon. | |
| Frank | The artistic or visual details shows that the main character in the book I'm reading gets scared when he is alone. It also shows that a girl named Leila easily makes friends with other people, and that a little boy called Terry is aggressive and angry. I can also see that the settings and surroundings are kind of scary. It's no one in the city where the characters are, and the weather looks weird. it seems like a zombie apocalypse. | It's not used in a creative way, It's just used like a normal comic. There are just speech bubbles and a few text boxes. |

| Week 50: | Do the characters grow or change? How so? | If you could talk to the creator what would you want to know? |
|-----------------|--|--|
| George | The characters grow up. In the beginning, there is a little girl at the end I see that she is much older. If I could talk to the creator in real life then I would have asked if the visually impaired woman gets the sight back. | |
| Frank | The characters in the book does not grow because the book is a little bit short. But they some of the characters grow a little bit of courage. The little boy Terry for example. He doesn't grow in height but he grows some courage when there leaving the house they are staying in to protect themself from the animales outside. | If I could talk to the creator of the book and ask him something, I would probably ask him how and where he got the ideas to make the book. Because it is a very creative book. I would also ask him if he got all the ideas himself or if someone helped him with it. |

Summaries

| | |
|---------------|---|
| George | The book I read is about a girl who is blind. It's about growing up blind. I think English lessons were pretty boring during the research project. After all, I hate reading so it wasn't quite the right tasks for me when I liked something. But it was also perfectly fine at the same time. I couldn't quite make out The Hobbit or The Lord of the Rings book we had to read. It was hard to understand that it was in English and was uninterested in not having an interest in The Hobbit and The Lord of the Rings. The book I had to read at home was a little better where I understood some of the context and the language was much easier. It will be good to have the usual English specialization hours back then. |
| Frank | The self-chosen book I read was called The vanishing. It was about a group of kids that were the only people on the earth after everyone else suddenly disappeared without them knowing. They start looking after other people and meet a few challenges on their journey. The book started with a little backstory about each character. There were 5 characters in the book, but the character that the book was most about was a boy called Dodzi. Dodzi is a boy who lives in a boarding school. he didn't have parents ,so it didn't affect him so much when everybody else on the earth disappeared. Of Course he was very scared in the start because he probably didn't know what was going on. But when he met the other kids he became less scared and got much tougher. When 3 of the kids in the book meet, they begin to go through the city too see if there are any other people there. They meet a girl and let her stay with them. they realize that there is no other people there ,so they begin to take a bath in a fountain in the city. But after bathing for a while, dodzi sees that stuff are destroyed some places. They meet another kid and let him be with them to. They see some wild animals that had escaped from a circus, and Dodzi realizes that the animales whas the ones making the damage in the city. The book ends in a little bit mysterious way, and I think that it will come out another book about it. |
